Let's Start!

What can you do in Salzburg?

Learning Outcome:

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Can Do Statements:

- I can talk about things to do on a trip.
- I can give and respond to suggestions.
- I can give extended warnings, recommendations, or advice.

Ask your partner:

- What type of things do you like to do when you visit a new city?
- Do you ever notice the architecture in a new city? Why or why not?

Let's Explore!

Is Sally fond* of opera?

*To be "fond of" is another way to say you like something.

Instructions: Read the dialogue aloud.

Sally: I'm really bored at the Salzburg Festival - it's all classical music and opera. I'm really not into sopranos. If you don't plan ahead, like me, the seats are really bad.

Peter: That's too bad.

Sally: It's just not fun like France or Spain.

Peter: When I look up Salzburg, I see there is lots to do.

Sally: Like???

Peter: You may enjoy looking at the baroque architecture.

Sally: Architecture???

Peter: If you want to have a day inside, go to the Mirabell Palace. It says that it's really beautiful.

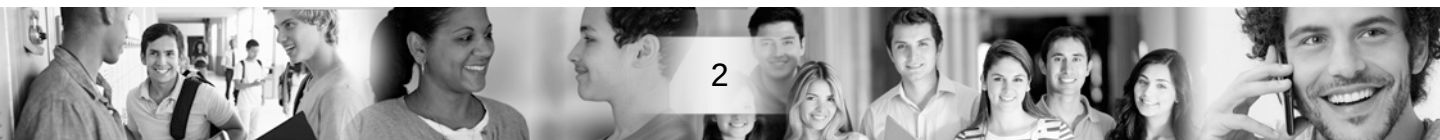

Sally: Boring!!

Peter: You could hop to another city. You should go to Amsterdam!

Sally: That's a great idea!

Peter: You can tour the flower market. You might want to see the Van Goghs!

Sally: Yesssss! Thanks for the help!

Let's Practice!

Let's see the Van Goghs!

*Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing phrases. Use: great idea, should go, might want to, Thanks for, could hop, can tour.

1. You _____ to another city.
2. You _____ to Amsterdam!
3. You _____ the flower market.
4. That's a _____!

Learning Points

Using Modals to Express Suggestions

You can use the modals can, could, may, might, shall and should to express suggestions.

Modal	Example
can could may might shall should	We can hop a flight to Berlin! You could go to Amsterdam. You may enjoy the architecture there. You might want to visit the museum. Shall we go to the art gallery? I could visit the Palace.

Responding to Suggestions

When you respond to a friend's suggestion, the response can be positive or negative.

Suggestion: You may enjoy looking at the baroque architecture.

Negative Response	Positive Response
Architecture? Boring! That's boring! I don't think so. Are you sure?	That's a great idea! Thanks for the help. I'd like that! Thanks for the suggestion! I'm sure I would.
